A Spat Between Crain of Texas and Sow. den of Pennsylvania Bills Passed Establishing Fees in Pension Cases - Only Three of the Big Four at Prayers.

Washington, Jan. 2 .- The sixteenth day the second session of the lower branch of he great semi-centennial North American Congress was as sunny as a May morn. The scenes in the House were not near as sunny. There were nearly as many ladies in the galeries as members on the floor. Fourteen of the ladies were beautiful. A score wore red hats, and two flourished Tosca canes. Two ladies levelled aluminum lorgnettes at Joseph 6. Cannon, Thomas B, Reed, and Julius Cosar Burrows. These three were the only members of the Big Four at prayers. Present Brevet-Major McKinley was absent. Gen. Henderson of lows. Gen. Benjamin Butterworth, Henry Cabot Lodge, and others on whose shoulders the Speaker's mantle may fall, did not appear. The new Governor of Indiana was also absent. His late antagonist, Gen. Matson, was in his seat and ready for business. Roger Q. Mills sat near him and Samuel J. Randall not ten feet away. Mr. Milis was in improved health, but Mr. Bandall is still pale and thin and is evidently working too hard. Mr. Nutting of Oswego was also in his seat looking remarkably well. If the Democrats depend upon his death to give them a majority of the next House it is evident that they will be disappointed. The great silver mace, the Stars and Stripes, Speaker Carlisle, and the blind Chaplain were all in their places at high noon. The Speaker crossed his hands on the handle of his gavel and bowed his head. The Chaplain raised his sightless eyes toward heaven and devout members arose while he made an elequent prayer. The Clerk next read the minutes of the last day's session. They conveyed the surprising information that the great and only Wm. I. Boott had been present on Doc. 21. The Speaker declared the minutes correct and laid before the House the usual number of Executive documents and personal requests.

John H. Moffit of New York got indefinite ieave of absence on account of illness. Mr. Richardson asked unanimous consent that Tuesday next be set aside for business from the Committee on Printing, and got it. The Speaker next called upon the committees for reports. He went through the list in seven minutes without gleaning anything.
"The hour for the consideration of bills," he next said, " begins at 12:13. The call rests with the Committee on Militia." As Mr. McAdoo, Chairman of that committee. was absent, it was passed without losing its place on the list.

When the Committee on Printing was reached Mr. Richardson secured the passage of a bill granting the employees of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing thirty days' leave of absence, with pay, each year, instead of fifteen days, as at present.

sance, with pay, each year, instead of fifteen days, as at present.

The next to respond was the Committee on Invalid Pensions. Gen. Matson, its Chairman, called up a bill prohibiting the allowance of fees in any claim for increase of pension on account of the increase of disability for which the pension was allowed. Gen. Weaver called the bill "a lemon squeezer." The richest pension attorney in the District is said to be a Mr. Lemon. If report is true he has made a million or more out of the business. He is a great Harrison man. His place of business was decorated with flags during the Republican parade last fail. It was evident that the passage of this bill would reduce his fees as well as those of all other pension attorneys.

Mr. Peters of Kanasas thought that the bill cut too deep. It was necessary in some cases for applicants to consult an attorney. He moved as an amendment that applicants for an increase be allowed to consult attorneys in their own States and Territories, fees not to exceed $2 each.

their own States and Territories, iees not to exceed $3 each.

The amendment was carried, and the bill passed after considerable debate. Its necessity was apparent from a statement of the Commissioner of Fensions, which showed that for the seven months beginning July 1, 1887, pension attorneys in such cases got fees aggreating $201.570. The bill was drawn up by Mr. Dockery of Missouri, who, merits credit for its passage.

Gen. Matson next called up a bill establishing the fees and expenses of examining surgeons. It makes the fees $2 to each member when the examination is made by a Board and $2 when made by a surgeon. It provides that when a claimant is so disabled that he cannot present himself to a Board for examination the Commissioner of Pensions may order a surgeon to take commissioner of the claimant's resisurgent to make one at the claimant's residence. The fee is to be $2 in addition to the actual travelling expenses of the surgeon. This bill aroused considerable discussion, and the second morning hour expired before a vote counting of the electoral vote so as to secure a definite result at every election.

Here Mr. Blanchard of Louisiana came to the front. He had been watching for an opportunity to advance his River and Harbor bill. He now moved that the House so into Committee of the Whole on appropriation bills, with a view to calling it up. He gave way long enough to allow the Hon. Stephen Van Cullen White of New York to secure the passage of his bill to amend the postal laws of the United States in reference to letters bearing special delivery stamps. These letters must bear a regular postage stamp in addition to the special delivery stamp. Frequently the regular stamp is omitted, through oversight or ignorance. Mr. White's bill provides that such letters shall be forwarded, and the lawful postage collected on delivery.

Mr. Blanchard then twisted the House into Committee of the Whole on the River and Harbor bill. The Porcunine Island break water got its $30,00, despite the amendment of Mr. Sowden, and the Clerk continued the second reading of the bill. Back Cove. Maine, got $15,000; Little Harbor, N. H., $11,000; Gordon's Landing, Vt. $39,500; Portland, $20,000; Burdington, $15,000; Boston, $75,000; Namucket and Newburrport, $10,000 each; New Bedford, $6,000; New Haven, $13,000; Bind River, $3,500; Bridgeport, $1,000; Black Rock, $6,000; New Haven, $1,000; Black Rock, $6,000; New Haven, $1,000; Black Rock, $6,000; New Haven, $1,000; Flushing Stay, $10,000; Guartie, $1,000. The New York appropriations were: Buffalo, $185,000; Rouse's Foint, $8,000; Canarie Bay, $3,500; Charlotte, $10,000; Dunkirk, $10,000; Flushing Bay, $10,000; Gowanus, $20,000; Greenport, $3,500; Creat Sodus, $10,000; Little Sodus, $5,000; Alcott, $2,500; Oak Orchard, $5,000; Ogdensburgh, $5,000; Oswego, $29,000; Snondout, $5,000; Sackett's Harbor, $10,000; Nagara Rilver, $50,000; New York Harbor, $10,000; Saugertles, $6,000; Wilson, $3,500; Port Chester, $2,500; Glen Cove, $10,000, and Baritan Bay, $15,000.

Everything ran smoothly until the harbor of Savannah was reached. Mr. Crisp of Georgia wanted that appropriation increased from $20,000 to $200,000. Mr. Blanchard, There was trouble when it reached an appropriation of $55,000 for continuing the improvement of Aransae Pasa and Bay Up, to Rockport and Corous Christi, Texas, Mr. Sowden of Pennsylvania moved to strike out the appropriation of $55,000 for dontinuing the improvement of Sabulo, The Hill also gave $150,000 for the improvement of the humber of the same of $200,000. The hill also gave $150,000 for the improvement of the humber of the same of $250,000. The hill also gave $150,000 for the improvement of the same purpose, He found in the bill $300,000 for the improvement of the humber of the same of $250,000. The hill also gave $150,000 for Bay Sowden Savendent was lost. Mr. Crain and added these wor mittee on the ground that Aransse Pass had already fared as well as other channels equally as meritorious. Mr. Sowden again paid his respects to Mr. Crain. and Mr. Crain made an apologetic reply. He said that he regretted for the good of the country that Mr. Sowden had not been returned to Congress.

The $500,000 amendment was then voted down. Thereupon Mr. Crain moved to increase the Aransas Pass appropriation to $200,000. He said that the commerce of twenty States and Territories west of the Mississippi were seeking an outlet through this pass. Mr. Sowden replied that the whole system was wrong. Vast sums had been expanded to no purpose. The recommendations of the engineers frequently proved to be utterly unreliable. He instanced repeated cases where hundreds and thousands of dollars had been squandered on such recommendations. Mr. Stewart, in renly, said that he would have enjoyed Mr. Sowden's argument much better if he had made it when the appropriations for streams and harbors in Pennsylvania were under consideration. Mr. Sowden nodded, saying. "I did" The vote was taken on the $200,000 appropriation. Mr. Cheadle of Indiana made the point of no quorum and teliers were appointed. Like a good General, Mr. Blanchard asked for a parley. He saw that it was impossible to secure a quorum. After a lapse of ten minutes, the point was withdrawn on an understanding that a vote would be taken in open House. Mr. Crain made similar efforts to increase the appropriation for Galveston harbor, but failed. There was plain sailing afterward until the committee reached an appropriation of $10,000 for the improvement of the harbor at Charlevoix and the entrance to Pine Lake, Mich. Then the fight grew too hot for a compromise. The point of no quorum was made, and Mr. Cheadle was on his mettle, and Mr. Blanchard cut the knot by moving that the committee resched an appropriation of $10,000 for the improvement of the barbor at Charlevoix and the entrance to Pine Lake, Mich. Then the fight grew too hot for a compromise. The point o

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

Republicans in the New Congress. WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 .- Thirty minutes after the Senate met to-day work on the Tariff bill was resumed as if no recess had been taken. The Democratic Senators realize that they have quite a task on their hands in their attempt to make clear their opposition to each section of the measure and still permit a final vote to be taken on Jan. 21, as they have agreed to do. The Republicans feel the weight of their responsibility even more than do their Democratic colleagues. The Finance Committee members have been working night and day during the holiday recess, and their work is still incomplete. They have been preparing the amendments which they will offer and permit to be offered to the bill before a flual vote is taken. They have practically combeted their rearrangement of the measure, but are greatly embarrassed by the perfect flood of letters, circulars, and personal visits of manufacturers and producers, each of whom has a little amendment that he wants adopted, and to satisfy the thousand conflicting interests is what is bothering the committee at present.

Some surprise has been expressed at the great care which the Bepublicans are exercising in the process of their bill toward bassage in the Sanate, when it is well known that it will certainly die on the House calendar or in a conference committee. The fact is, however, that the bill is being thus carefully worded and protected now for the reason that it is intended to be the bill of the Republican Ways and Means Committee of the Fifty-first Congress. The Senators expect the House to accept the bill practically as it goes to them, and by this means they hope to have a House bill all ready soon after the new House shall convens. Leading members of the present House, who are to be leaders in the next also, are being daily consulted as to proposed changes, and it is claimed that many of them look very favorably upon the Senate measure practically as it stands. The Finance Committee has arranged a long list of amendments to the bill, out are guarding them with great secrecy, for the reason that should they become known the appeals of conflicting interests would pour in until the committee would be distracted.

The most pronounced contest in the pending discussion in the Senate is likely to arise when the sugar schedule is section of the measure and still permit a final vote to be taken on Jan. 21, as they have agreed to do. The Republicans feel the weight second morning hour expired before a vote was reached.

Mr. Springer then secured unanimous consent for the introduction of a measure for reference. It was a joint resolution providing for the admission of Arizona and Idaho into the Union. Mr. Springer also sprung in a proposed Constitutional amendment making the Presidential term six years, and forbidding a redisction. It contains a provision for the counting of the electoral vote so as to secure a was done. He says that the beet sugar industry is the biggest thing in the future of California. and that it must be encouraged. The Kansas Senators also joined Mr. Stanford's position in the interest of the sorghum growers. Great pressure is being brought to bear on the committee also, in favor of free lumber, but they have not yielded as yet.

The Miller-Platt fight probably will be settled definitely by President-elect Harrison on Friday. Senator Hiscock, the biggest of the New day. Senator Hiscock, the biggest of the New York Big Four, left for Indianapolis to meet Gen. Harrison by appointment. By a peculiar coincidence that may have great significance as foreshadowing future results. Mr. Hiscock left Washington on the same train that carried Matthew Stanley Quay a few weeks ago, when he took his numerous secrets and his raging headache to Hooslerdom. Before leaving the Senate chamber this afternoon. Mr. Hiscock had chats with Allison. Sherman, Evarts, and others of his colleagues. The great and only Col. Quay still remains at Beaver Falls, I'a.

The warrant for the pardon of Benjamin F Hopkins of the Fidelity National Bank of Cin-cinnati was still at the Department of State to-Hopkins of the Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati was still at the Department of State today, but it was said there that it would be sent to the Attorney-General this afternoon for transmission to the warden of the jail where he is conlined. The President granted the application for pardon in this case on Dec. 21, and the Attorney-General immediately made requisition on the Secretary of State for a warrant. This document was prepared at the Department of State and sent to the President on the 26th for his signature. He signed it that evening and it was returned to the State Department the following morning. It then needed only the signature of the Secretary of State and the seal of the United States to be a complete document. It appears however, that these necessary formalities were not performed until to-day. There is no explanation for the apparent delay other than the one that the papers must have been overlooked. It is said at the Department of Justice that the warrant will be mailed to the proper officer immediately upon its receipt from the State Department.

The warrant for the pardon of Hopkins was mailed to the warden of the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus at 3 this afternoon. Accompanying it was an order for Hopkins's immediate release.

Mr. Springer of Illinois, Chairman of the Mr. Springer of Illinois, Chairman of the House Committee on Territories, has formulated an amendment pertaining to the nomenclature of the new States to be admitted into the Union, which he proposes to offer when the Omnibus bill is before the House for consideration. The amendment prohibits the Constitutional Convention of New Mexico. Washington, and South Dakota from selecting as State names the names now borne by the respective Territories, and suggests for Mexico. Montezuma: for Washington, Tacoma, and for South Dakota, Winona, this being the name given to the first born female child of a chief of the Dacotans. North Dakota is to retain the name of Dakota.

Further Boycott of the "Q."-Big Business on the Long Island Boad-Poeis,

The engineers about this town say they know nothing of the action of the Brotherhood in the secret meeting held at Chicago to find out the extent to which the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road was supported by the other great lines of the country in its stand against the strikers. A Brotherhood Pennsylvania engineer says that the question as to whether the managers of other roads had boyboycotted the "Q." strikers had never been discussed at their meetings. The Jersey City branch, he said, hadn't received the circular, which, it is reported, was sent out on Monday by the Brotherhood in Chicago announcing a fresh boycott on the "Q." road. Several other engineers who were questioned about the likelihood of a general strike throughout the country in case the managers continue to stand by the "Q." people, said it was all nonsense. Too much was at stake, and the leaders of the Brotherhood were too conservative to think of such extreme measures. The spread of the business of the Pennsylvania road has necessitated the employment vania road has necessitated the employment of more engineers, and a recent examination resulted in the promotion of these firemen: Benjamin Smith, H. Judge Lawrence Refuses to Restrain the Board of Electrical Control.

The effort of the United States Illuminating Company to secure an injunction to restrain the Board of Electrical (Control, the Commissioner of Public Works, and the Superintendent of the Bureau of Incumbrances from interfering with its poles and wires and from giving any other companies greater privileges than it receives from the Electrical Board has been unsuccessful. The application was denied vesterday by Judge Lawrence in Supreme Court. The United States Company based its application chiefly upon the theory that the Board had unjustly dealt with it to the benefit of other companies. The Judge says:

"I am of the opinion that the whole equity of the plaintiff's case is mot dealed, and answered by the defendant's papers, and I therefore see no reason for interposing the strong arm of the court to arrest the progress of a great public work, the speedy conclusion of which is desirable or the safety and convenience of the people." intendent of the Bureau of Incumbrances from

To-day's speculation upon the Stock Exchange was characterized by dulness and irregularity. It was a disappointment to a good many small operators who came down town with an idea that the more confident feeling that was noted during the last days of the old year would result in a bull market for the opening to-day. The decided check of speculation came from Boston in the shape of a fresh slump in the market for Atchison. The speculative and other friends of that company are becoming weary of the pretty steady progress of the stock toward lower prices, and are also chagrined at the reluctance of the management to take the public into its confidence The only inference from this last condition of affairs is that the company has upon its books nothing to be especially proud of. The November statement of earnings was also used against the stock. It was published late in the day, and, though it did not fulfil the early unfavorable predictions, the stock did not rally. The decided weakness in Atchison influenced the market for Missouri Pacific, and, to an extent, that for the Granger stocks. All of them closed materially lower. The strong features were New England. Jersey Central, Louisville and Nashville, and Union Pacific. It was netural that the market should not fulfil the gen-ral that the market should not fulfil the general expectation of better prices, but the reverse movement would probably not have been as pronounced as it was had not the attention of the public been directed afresh to the serious misfortunes of the Atchison Company.

It is very evident that the public has not recovered its faith in the managers of our great railroad systems, and the chances are that confidence in railroad securities will not be altogether restored until some of the offending managers have been deposed. The tendency in that direction is growing stronger every day, and it would not be surprising if long before the annual meetings of the Granger and southwestern roads are held a formal request on the part of stockholders, or those representing them for proxies, to remove such officials as Mr. Gould, Mr. Cable, Mr. Portins, and others from office would be made. The desire of stockholders for a permanent medium, or organization, through which they can enforce their rights is also gradually finding expression, and ought soon to take definite sheep. The

The gross earnings of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad for November were $1.341.-787, a decrease of $160.111 as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year, and net, $499.670, a decrease of $126.612. For the five months ending Nov. 30 the gross earnings were $5.853.034, a decrease of $321.037 as compared with the corresponding period of 1887, and net, $2.568.533, a decrease of $377.107. The volume of business on the New York Stock Exchange during December was in every department larger than it was the previous year. The sales of stocks aggregated 6.472.135 shares, an increase of 1.227.678 shares over 1887; Government bonds, $570,100, an increase of $111,950, and State and railroad bonds, par value, $25,698,500, an increase of $7,736,330. The Stock Exchange has stricken from its list the capital stock of the Dubuque and Sioux City Railroad, because it has been learned that the Illinois Central Company holds all but about 1,800 of the 50,000 shares.

about 1,800 of the 50,000 shares.

The statement of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad for November shows gross earnings of $1,450,371, a decrease of $195,707 as compared with the same month of 1887, and net $630,781, a decrease of $199,002. For the cleven months ending Nov. 30 the gross earnings were $14,260,105, a decrease of $2,705,294 as compared with the corresponding period of 1887, and net $4,642,051, a decrease of $3,286,186. The mileage was larger by $27 miles than in 1887.

The extension of the Chesapeake and Ohio from Ashiand to Covington, Ky., and the bridge between Covington and Cincinnati, were to-day turned over by the contractors to the Chesapeake and Ohio Company, and the latter expects to be running its own trains from Newport News through to Cincinnati next week. It may take a couple of menths longer to linish up various details, but this is the last fundamental stap connected with the reorganization of the Chesapeake and Ohio, which is now practically accomplished.

There was sold at auction in Philadelphia today $400.000 Ohio and Northwestern Railroad Company's first morigage 6 per cent. gold coupons, January and July, 1936, with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from July, 1887, and $14.000 with overdue coupons attached from January, 1888. The bonds were sold by the Investment Company of this city. The first block was sold at 60 and the second at 57. The Investment Company some time ago advanced about $500,000 to the Ohio and Northwestern road, and subsequently, it is said, advanced abditional sums. The bonds were taken as security for the loan. The company defaulted on Jan 1. The road has been in the hands of a receiver several times.

On the 20th of December, 1887, the managers of your properties began a war of rates. On the 21st of Decem-ber, 1808, the managers of your properties restored rates. In the intervening twelve mouths your loss was forty millions of dollars, and your dividends were either reduced in amount or stepped altogether. The same reasons which prevailed at the time the cutting of rates was began still prevail. There is no change in the situation except that your companies were rich a year and are impoverished now. The sum of forty millions of money has been lest and there is nothing to show for it except the loss. The managers of nothing to show for it except the loss. The managers of your companies do not dispute these facts; there is no disputing them. The money is gene irretrievably. The only inference to be drawn from the facts is that the managers of your property have proven themselves incompetent and disloyal to your interests. They have ignored the fact that you, the stockholders are the owners of the properties, and that it is your substance and not theirs which they have wilfully and wantenly squandered. The situation is without excuse or ballis-tion of any kind. It is for you to say if it shall be with-
